Intercampus Student Council Update
“The competition definitely put some confidence in them when they go out into the workforce. It is real world-type experience, going against red teamers who are part of the industry. So, it is actually a big deal for them.” – Vijay Anand
Making a Philanthropic Impact

“The Kummer Vanguard Scholars program gives us an outlet for our creativity and gives us sneak peeks into working and life after college. It truly shows us what is possible. - Matt Minatra, Kummer Vanguard Scholar
Brady Smith, UMKC School of Pharmacy Student, was recently honored as the Missouri Pharmacy Association’s Student of the Year.

“I appreciate that we are a smaller cohort, so we receive more personalized attention from our amazing, supportive faculty when we need it.” – Kevin Du
“This experience, it’s been a dream come true… It’s been important for me to slow down and take it one step at a time.” – Amelia Wilson, Mizzou Football Student Assistant
