

For Managers: Your Employee Assistance Program

What is the Employee Assistance Program?

The Employee Assistance Program is provided by ComPsych® GuidanceResources and offers free, confidential counseling to all our eligible employees and their household members.

Why provide an EAP?

The EAP offers counseling and guidance for emotional issues such as depression, anxiety and grief. Helping employees and their dependents ensures that these issues don't spill over into the workplace and harm productivity or morale.

Is the service confidential?

Yes, the EAP is strictly confidential. No information about participation in the program is provided to the employer.

Why should managers use the EAP?

The EAP is a referral resource when an employee expresses concerns over or suffers performance problems due to a personal issue. As a manager, it is not your job to be a professional counselor or best friend. The EAP can handle that for you.

Why might an employee or his/her dependents use the services of the EAP?

There are many reasons for employees to take advantage of these services, including when they:

- Are feeling overwhelmed by balancing work and family
- Are experiencing stress, anxiety or depression
- Are dealing with grief and loss
- Need assistance with relationship concerns
- Need support for your loved ones
- Have concerns about substance abuse for themselves or a dependent

Under what circumstances might a manager refer an employee to the EAP?

All employees can experience personal difficulties that can impact their performance at work. As a manager, you can suggest the EAP to an employee as a confidential resource provided at no charge.

What happens when employees call the EAP?

When employees call, they will speak with a GuidanceConsultant<sup>SM</sup>, a master's- or PhD-level counselor who will collect some general information and will talk with them about their needs. The GuidanceConsultant will provide the name of a counselor who can assist them.

Can employees' children use the EAP?

Yes. The EAP is a confidential benefit for eligible employees and their household family members.
